

EVENT & FILM GUIDE – AUGUST 2019

Yesterday (M)

Running Time: 116 minutes

Yesterday, everyone knew The Beatles. Today, only Jack remembers their songs. He's about to become a very big deal. From Academy Award®-winning director Danny Boyle (Slumdog Millionaire, Trainspotting, 28 Days Later) and Richard Curtis, the Oscar-nominated screenwriter of Four Weddings and a Funeral, Love Actually and Notting Hill, comes a rock-n-roll comedy about music, dreams, friendship, and the long and winding road that leads to the love of your life.

Camino Skies (PG)

Running Time: 81 minutes

Exploring themes of spirituality, wellbeing and religion, this is the inspirational journey of six strangers from New Zealand and Australia walking the 800km Camino de Santiago to overcome the personal and physical trauma that life has dealt them.

Through blisters, shin splints and heat, the Camino forces pilgrims to defy their age and physical ability, while also acting as a catalyst for change. Both heart-breaking and inspirational, 'Camino Skies' is an uplifting story about everyday people doing the extraordinary.

The Public (M)

Running Time: 119 minutes

In The Public, an unusually bitter Arctic blast has made its way to downtown Cincinnati and the front doors of the public library where the action of the film takes place. The story revolves around the library patrons, many of whom are homeless, mentally ill and marginalised, as well as an exhausted and overwhelmed staff of librarians who often build emotional connections and a sense of obligation to care for those regular patrons.

Herbs: Songs of Freedom (PG)

Running Time: 91 minutes

Documentary on legendary New Zealand reggae group, Herbs. Celebrates the five men from different islands in the South Pacific who gave voice to a generation and the issues of the time through their music. The founders of Pacific reggae, Herbs were one of Aotearoa's most important bands of the 80s. The band had 10 Top 20 singles, and recorded hits with fellow Kiwi legends Dave Dobbyn ('Slice of Heaven') and Tim Finn ('Parihaka'). Though infectious upbeat, Herbs' music was always politically conscious (1980 hit song 'French Letter' became the sound of NZ's anti-nuclear stance). Herbs featured three vocalists — Dilworth Karaka, Willie Hona, and the late Charlie Tumahai. In 2008, the band reconvened for 30th anniversary compilation Lights Of The Pacific: The Very Best Of Herbs.

The Keeper (M)

Running Time: 119 minutes

Based on an incredible true story, The Keeper follows Bert Trautmann, a German prisoner of war whose exceptional skills on the soccer field get him noticed by the manager of a local football team. Impressed by Bert's prowess as a goal-keeper, the team manager gets him out of the camp to play for his team.

Meanwhile, a love slowly blossoms between the manager's daughter and Bert despite local hostility. In addition to the disapproval of his relationship, Bert's subsequent signing by Man City brings passionate protests from the people of Manchester, a city that had been severely bombed in the War. However, against all odds he won over even his harshest critics during the FA Cup Final for Manchester City in 1956. After an on-field accident, Bert broke his neck... and continued playing to secure victory.

Pavarotti (Ex)

Running Time: 114 minutes

From the team behind the worldwide success The Beatles: Eight Days a Week comes two time Academy Award® winning director Ron Howard's documentary celebrating the life of the beloved opera star Luciano Pavarotti, who sold over 100 million records in his lifetime.

Thanks to a partnership with Decca Records and unique access to the Pavarotti family archives, home videos, behind the scenes and extensive live music footage, we see Pavarotti's personal story emerge: from his humble beginnings in Northern Italy through to global super stardom. We travel the world with Pavarotti. We get to know the great tenor as a husband and a father, a committed philanthropist, as well as a fragile artist who had a complex relationship with his own unique talents and unprecedented success.

Little Woods (M)

Running Time: 103 minutes

Ollie (Tessa Thompson) is barely getting by in Little Woods, an economically depressed fracking boomtown in North Dakota. She has left her days of illegally running prescription pills over the Canadian border behind, eyeing a potential new job that would finally break her out of the small town. But when her mother dies, she is reunited with her estranged sister Deb (Lily James), who faces a mounting crisis: the combined effect of an unplanned pregnancy and a deadbeat ex. The two find they have one week to settle the mortgage on their mother's house or face foreclosure. As both bills and pressure mount, Ollie faces a choice: whether to return to a way of life she thought she'd left behind for just one more score, or to leave it all behind.

Rory's Way (M)

Running Time: 107 minutes

Rory's Way stars acclaimed British actor Brian Cox as Rory MacNeil, a rugged old Scotsman who reluctantly leaves his beloved isolated Hebridean island and travels to San Francisco to seek medical treatment. Moving in with his estranged son, Rory sees his life transformed through a newly found bond with his baby grandson.

LIVE EVENTS

Loss, Grief and Healing Seminar with Sue Friday 23 August - 7pm

You will have the opportunity to embark on a remarkable journey of learning with me. I will help you to navigate through the deep waters of loss and grief, helping you to break down the patterns of fear which have prevented you from reaching your highest self.

Aside from my well-known psychic abilities and mediumship background, I am an officially trained Louise Hay teacher with a wealth of knowledge in introducing people to their destinies. We all have the power to transform our lives, but for many, a guiding light is needed to reveal the beauty of love, hope and faith – finding the love of yourself.

- Are you looking for peace in your life?
- Have you struggled to find the right tools to break free from the shackles of your fears?
- Do you feel stuck in old patterns which no longer serve your highest good?
- Are you in need of new direction?
- Are you trying to find the right tools to help you move forward?
- Do you feel stuck in your Grief?
- Do you wish to live your best life instead of merely existing day to day?
- Are you ready to heal your life?

If you have answered 3 or more then this Seminar is for you

Take a leap of faith and join me on this opportunity of a lifetime to rejoice in the power of healing your life.

Tickets: $69.95 (additional fees may apply) You will also receive Sue's signature bag, a journal and a pen on arrival.

Orchestra, Jazz Band & Dance Concert Saturday 24 August - 4pm

Iconic Kiwis Operatunity

Thursday 29 August - 11am

New Zealand has produced some great entertainers throughout the years and Operatunity are delighted to present some of the most celebrated and iconic entertainers in one show: Marian Burns, fiddle player extraordinaire with her award winning fiddling and infectious personality; Suzanne Lynch, iconic star, stunning singer and original member of the Chicks; Pat Urlich, singer, mover and shaker, musician, legend from Peking Man; Operatunity's own legend Karl Perigo, MC and effervescent talent; and Tainui Kuru, a young Maori singer who will woo you with his dulcet singing.

This concert will present a nostalgic tribute to some of NZ's iconic entertainers like the Howard Morrison Quartet, Hogsnort Rupert, Ray Columbus and Patsy Rigger, with familiar comedy sketches from The Topp Twins and Billy T James!

All this infectious fun and frivolity will be backed up by Operatunity's great band.

Please call 0508 266 237 or visit www.daytimeconcerts.co.nz to book tickets

Let's Talk sessions

Saturday 31 August - 2pm

Amy McAuley and Toni Lewis alongside some special guest speakers will spend the afternoon with you sharing stories from people that have not only experienced great loss or adversity in their lives but also offer stories of hope.

This event is for you if you are in the field of supporting people on their way to recovery or wellness.

This event is also for you if you are currently facing your own road to recovery and wanting to know how to navigate that journey.

This is not a sales event, it is purely information based for our community. Guest speakers will be announced soon.

Tickets: $19 (additional fees may apply)
