

EVENT & FILM GUIDE – SEPTEMBER 2024

We Were Dangerous (M) Running Time: 83 minutes

A powerful story of female friendship, from director Josephine Stewart-Te Whiu

In 1954 New Zealand, Nellie and Daisy attempt to escape an institution for delinquent girls, however not only are they caught, it triggers a relocation to a facility on a remote island. The duo become a trio as well-to-do Lou joins them, and life on the island takes shape under the command of devout Matron.

The trio rail against the system, dubious of the benevolence of the bible and taking refuge in their blossoming friendship. It's hard to reform girls who don't believe they need reforming. However, a sense of doom settles in when experimental forms of punishment take place in the dead of night.

Midas Man (M) Running Time: 112 minutes

When Brian Epstein (Jacob Fortune-Lloyd) set foot in the Cavern Club in November 1961 to watch The Beatles perform, he saw something no one else could a glimmer of gold. Sharply dressed and well-spoken, Brian was hardly the most obvious radical but being Jewish, closeted and having grown up as an outsider who had failed at pretty much everything, he was a 26-year old with something to prove and who wanted to tear up the rulebook.

Midas Man is the emotional, heartfelt and often funny story of how Epstein polished four scruffy lads who were going nowhere and in a matter of months turned them into a global phenomenon; of his unwavering belief in his artists and his tenacity in the face of getting turned down by every big record label; and of the style, guile and charm that allowed him to 'break' America and fundamentally change popular culture forever.

The Sitting Duck (M) Running Time: 122 minutes

The Sitting Duck is the true story of Maureen Kearney (Isabelle Huppert), the head union representative of a French multinational nuclear powerhouse. She became а whistleblower, denouncing top-secret deals that shook the French nuclear sector. Alone against the world, she fought government ministers and industry leaders, tooth and nail to bring the scandal to light and to defend more than 50,000 jobs... Her life was turned upside down when she was violently assaulted in her own home... The investigation is carried out under pressure: the subject is sensitive. Suddenly, new elements create doubt in the minds of the investigators. At first a victim, Maureen becomes a suspect.

Ghostlight (M) Running Time: 116 minutes

When a construction worker unexpectedly joins a local theatre's production of Romeo and Juliet, the drama onstage starts to mirror his own life.

Maurice and I (Ex) Running Time: 98 minutes

Having lost almost their entire life's work in the 2011 Christchurch earthquake, iconic New Zealand architects Sir Miles Warren and Maurice Mahoney fight to save their finest building from demolition. Maurice and I is a powerful and enthralling exploration of partnership, loss and the enduring importance of architecture in shaping and enriching our lives.

Warren & Mahoney were also the architects that designed Hawkins Theatre.
